

Alumni News

Jonathan Lass, 94BJS – In addition to his law firm practice in Austin, Texas, Jonathan was asked to serve as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Texas School of Law teaching two courses this 2017-2018 academic year: 1. Financial Methods for Lawyers and 2. Legal Negotiation. Prior to teaching at the law school Jonathan taught Business Law at the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas during the 2016-2017 academic year.

Emily Cumbie-Drake, 11BJS – Emily became engaged in December to Zachary Hennessee, 08Ox 10C and their wedding is scheduled for May 2019. They will be moving to Baltimore this summer where Emily will be starting graduate school at Johns Hopkins University to get her Masters in Public Health with a Food Systems Concentration.

Callum Woolley, 17BJF – Callum Woolley has recently launched a new company, Nerv, which he co-founded while at Emory on the Robert T Jones, Jr. Fellowship. Callum and his co-founder, Dr Michael Jiang - a neuroscientist at Emory - created a drink that helps to manage stress and anxiety, and improve focus. Last year their first product, Nerv Shots, sold out online and since their most recent launch have generated local and national press.

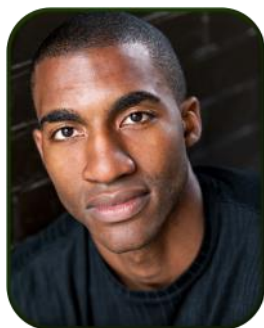

Callum also played the lead role of Prince Alexander in a recent movie, My Christmas Prince, which aired on the Lifetime channel throughout December.

Adam Goldstein, 17BJS – Adam is settled in Boston and working at an affordable housing developer / consultant called Affirmative Investments.

Hannah Rose Blakeley, 17BJS – Hannah Rose is currently teaching at a high school for the graphic arts in Vienna with Fulbright Austria, and once her contract is completed in May, she will stay through the summer to serve as the program assistant for Emory's summer study abroad program in Vienna.

In September Hannah Rose will move to New Jersey to begin a PhD in art history at Princeton. My specialization is in nineteenth- and early-twentieth century European art, with a particular interest in Belgium. At St Andrews she wrote her MLitt dissertation on Félicien Rops, a Belgian Symbolist artist, and she looks forward to expanding her research in graduate school. She also looks forward to catching up with Bobby Jones alum (St Andrews to Emory 2014/15) Zoe Ashwood in Princeton, as well as any others who might be around!

Garrett Turner, 12BJS – Garrett's next show is called Half Time. It's a new musical playing at the Papermill Playhouse (across the Hudson from Manhattan) in New Jersey. The show runs May 31 to July 1.

Alumni News

Jonathan Bertulis-Fernandes, 16BJS – Jonathan has recently moved to New York City and has started a new job as Grant Writer with The Legal Aid Society's Civil Practice. The Legal Aid Society, founded in 1876, is a public interest nonprofit law firm providing direct legal services to vulnerable individuals, and also advocating for marginalized New Yorkers through broader, law reform work.

Through class action law reform litigation the Society has succeeded, among others, in creating a housing subsidy for more than 20,000 families with children at risk of homelessness, securing Medicaid-funded maternity services for undocumented mothers in New York, and establishing the 24 hour arrest to arraignment rule in NYC. Jonathan is pictured here with Julia, his partner, and their Maine Coon cat, Georgia!

Travis Sentell, 02BJS – Travis co-wrote an episode of Amazon's "Electric Dreams," which has been getting good reviews!

Trisha Nain, 07BJS – Trisha graduated on March 5, 2018 with an MSc in Public Health from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine! Trisha managed this while working full time, so it's been a long journey!

Jacqueline Cassidy, 96BJS – Jacqueline had such a blast at the 40 year reunion that her family is now committed to coming to the next reunion in the US! And now, almost every day is a mini-reunion since she is living on the same street as another Jones Scholar.

Jacqueline won a scholarship to Edinburgh Business School and is now halfway through an MBA, mainly studying while putting the kids to bed which involves reading crouched under a Thomas the Tank Engine night light!

If anyone is passing through Edinburgh, you would be welcome for dinner. Drop her a line on twitter @jacqcassidy.

Fiona O'Carroll, 15BJS – Fiona O'Carroll, 18L has been named a 2018 Law360 Distinguished Legal Writing Burton Award winner, an honor given to only 15 people for articles submitted.

Development News

Our Bobby Jones Scholar alumni are generous supporters of Emory and the Bobby Jones Program. 51% of Bobby Jones Program alumni have been, or currently are, donors to Emory University and 14.5% of alumni have made a gift this fiscal year. You can join your peers in supporting the Bobby Jones Program by clicking here.

Bobby Jones alumni maintain a strong sense of community across the country and around the world. In the last several months, we've hosted alumni gatherings in London (October), Boston (November), Phoenix (December), and Washington, D.C. (January). During their summer road trip, on June 9th, this year's scholars will visit San Francisco where alumnus Dr. Charles Scott, 82BJS, will host a reception in their honor. Look for your invitation in the mail and make plans to join us if you're on the West Coast!

Seventy two golfers played in the Second Annual Bobby Jones Legacy Golf Tournament, more than half who returned after playing in last year's tournament. We were grateful to partner with six corporate sponsors, welcoming Coke, Jones Global Sports, and Woodruff Health Sciences Center as returning sponsors

Bobby Jones gathering in Edinburgh at Café Andaluz

Bobby Jones gathering in Boston at the home of Sarah & Chris Schoettle, 86BJS